

~~Odessa~~

Approved For Release 2009/07/21 : CIA-RDP83-00418R000200020012-0

Odessa, [REDACTED] Russian naval formation bearing south-southwest, consisting of the following:

25X1

25X1

- an escort vessel
- three submarines of medium range, one of which was identified by the numeral "250"

25X1

a) escort ship

- estimated tonnage -- 500
- dark-grey-painted metal hull
- length, approximately 50 meters
- width undetermined
- funnel: one, cylindrical in shape

This is UNEVALUATED Information

25 YEAR
RE-REVIEW

- 1 -

SECRET

Approved For Release 2009/07/21 : CIA-RDP83-00418R000200020012-0

25X1

25X1

- shape of prow: vertical
- shape of stern: cruiser
- shelter deck: one, in the center, incorporated with the main deck
- masts: one, rising from the deck
- armament observed: several machine guns on the bridge

b) submarines

- type: medium range
- tower: approximately three meters high
- length: (estimated) 60 meters
- periscope: only one, whose height from the tower was estimated at three or three and a half meters, was observed,
- armament: one forward gun of undetermined caliber
- identification marks: three numerals painted on the side of tower
- hull: painted dark grey

II) Port of Odessa (see map)

-- military vessels observed

Berthed at (H):

25X1

-- merchant ships observed

25X1

(C) an unloaded 5,000-ton Russian tanker

(D) Russian steamship of approximately 3,000 tons' capacity with the following features:

- form of prow: oblique

25X1

25X1

- form of stern: elliptical
- funnels: one, located aft
- engine room: aft
- booms: six
- holds: three

(E) three or four steamships under repair

(F) Russian steamship "Belorussia" of 8,000 tons' capacity,
unloaded

(G) berth of observer

(I) a 10,000-ton tanker in (outer) basin

(J) steamship in basin

(L) several lighters

(M) small river boats (with paddlewheels) under repair

-- notes on the port area

(1) new headquarters of Inflat

(2) electric power station powered by a brand-new high-capacity
diesel engine supplying energy to the mechanical installations
of the port

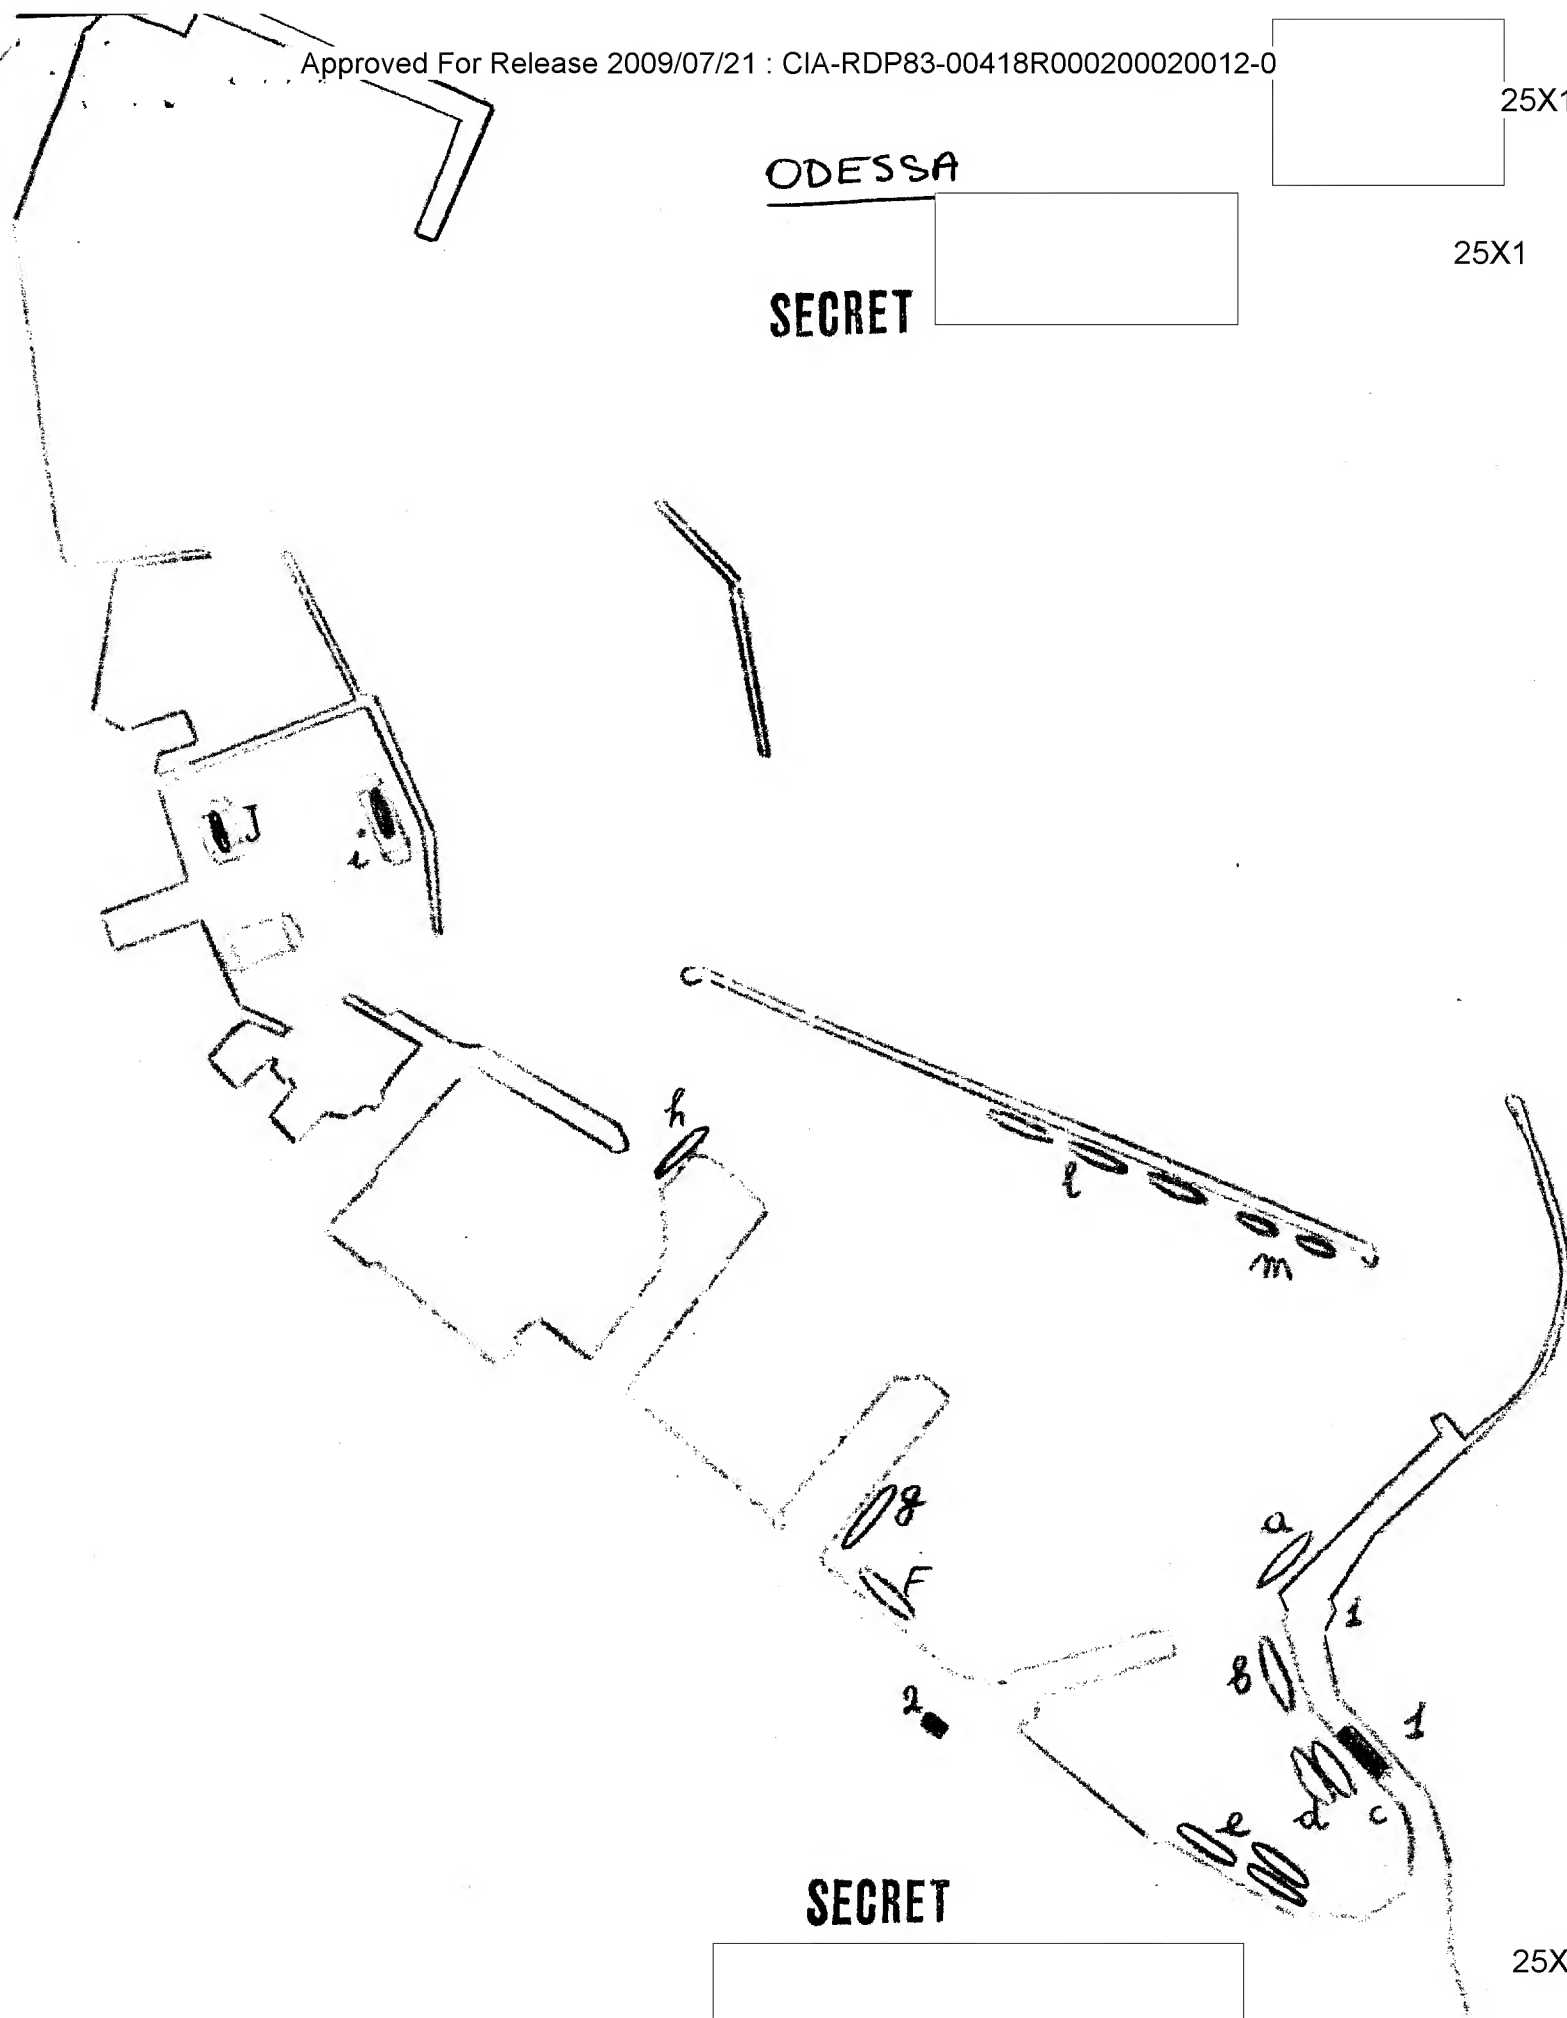

25X1

25X1

ODESSA

25X1

SECRET

SECRET

25X1